About me

I'm a Visual Developer Artist based in Utrecht. As a self-taught student, I have gained resilience and discipline as well as skills that make me an excellent candidate. The courses mentioned below gave me the knowledge regarding storytelling, design and illustration that can make our collaboration a blast!

Education

Schoolism / Visual Development for Television

OCTOBER 2021 - FEBRUARY 2022

This course covered character design, prop design, background design, background paint and color design as well as the basics: shape language, perspective, character turns and color theory.
